Google Analytics

This Service, from Google Inc., is an analytics tool that stores information in cookies to generate traffic statistics to our sites. This feature is not necessary for browsing and is used to monitor the performance of the site and improve it. We do not process any personal data or other identifiers useful for the indirect identification (e.g. IP address) of data subjects when using Google Analytics. However, this does not mean that your personal data is not processed by Google Inc., the Google Analytics data controller. The main cookie used by Google Analytics is the file `_ga`. Learn more about the types of cookies Google Inc. uses. can be found here:

<https://policies.google.com/technologies/types?hl=pl>

In addition to reporting usage statistics for our website, Google Analytics, along with some advertising cookies, can be used to serve more relevant ads from Google Inc. (based on your search history and activity history on our website), as well as to measure interactions with display ads from Google Inc. Google Analytics also uses cookies on our website to analyse your behaviour, which is stored on your end device (computer, tablet, smartphone). Google anonymizes part of the ip address of the end user of our website as soon as it is collected, thereby increasing your privacy. Google Inc. uses the information collected when you use the website to evaluate your use of our website, to provide us with reports of website activity and to provide other services related to your use of our website and your use of the Internet.

The processing of data by Google Analytics can be prevented by configuring a web browser in which you can install the browser plug-in (available at the following link): <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=pl>. Clicking on this link will save the opt-out cookie in your browser, which will prevent you from accessing your data in the future when you visit our website (www.bringback.me). For more information about the processing of personal data by Google Inc. when using Google Analytics, you can review their privacy policy at:
